Should you have a Heavy Command Cruiser or an Airborne Fortress,

now

Should you desire it, this A.I. can even take the place of your co-pilot instead.

BASE CUSTOMIZATION:

this

Should you have purchased a 'Heavy Command Cruiser' or a superweapon base such as the 'Excalibur Tower' or the 'Stonehenge Spacegun Turret Network', you may bring one into the 'Base Customization' table for free. Those who have purchased an 'Airborne Fortress' must still pay this surcharge to change the ship from a dedicated weapon of war to a flying base.

you now possess +1000 'Base Points' to use in the customization of your new piece of real estate.

Should you already possess a 'Heavy Command Cruiser' that you imported into the 'Plane Customization' table, or an 'Airborne Fortress' that you imported into this table with 'Bring Your Own Fortress', you do not need to pay this surcharge.

If you wish, this can be used to acquire Helios missiles.
